

KFAR SABA RESIDENCE – KFAR SABA, ISRAEL

ARCHITECT: MIKI KETTER

FIRM: 2M ARCHITECTS

This luxurious, white ornamental Israeli Villa for a family of six was inspired by the architecture of its native countries, France and America. The client wished for a home that was both practical and functional for family living, but also interesting from an architectural and design perspective. A three-story 3,200 square-foot home on a 5,000 square-foot lot was designed to fit the program. Marvin windows were chosen to satisfy the parameters of the home's design as well as the client's quality and practicality requirements. The result is a balanced, joyful, well-lit home and happy, satisfied clients.
